Caliente Isle Yacht Club By-Laws: Article V - Membership; Section T – Membership Process

An adult person must present their written application for membership, endorsed by two (2) current members in good standing who have been members for at least six months. Payment in full of membership dues as well as any initiation fee shall accompany the new membership application. Any new membership dues proration as well as the amount of any initiation fee shall be established by the Board of Directors for the year of their watch. The application shall be submitted to the BOD for their recommendations.

Acceptance of the application and fees by the BOD shall signify that a probationary period not to exceed six (6) months has commenced.

Following a successful probationary period, the BOD maintains the right and responsibility for ensuring the proper behavior of members during Club functions. If misbehavior occurs, the Board has the responsibility to appropriately discipline the member. Disciplinary action may include, but is not limited to, any or all of the following:

- a) Verbal warnings
- b) Written reprimands
- c) Return of the membership status to probationary
- d) Revocation of the membership with no return of any fees

It is understood that if a seriously grievous offense occurs, the BOD may take immediate action to expel the member from the club. The above actions may only occur with a majority vote of the BOD.

25. I have read and by signing (typing your name), agree with the above regarding "Regular Membership" in Caliente Isle Yacht Club: *
